Hi Jeannelle,

I hope you had a wonderful Christmas. =) I sure did!

Glad to hear from you! Josh and I had a wonderful honeymoon. The Poconos resort was perfectly relaxing and exactly what we needed. =) We were never bored, but we didn't feel obligated to run around doing stuff either.

I can't believe how quick our wedding day flew by! All that planning and it seemed to be over before I knew it. We were so pleased at how smoothly everything went and I must say, I had a blast! I think it was a wonderful day. It felt like a fairy-tale wedding. Thank you for all the hard work you did to make it so perfect.

Please pass on to Rykke (did I spell her name right?) that she did a great job. The D.J. fit into our event perfectly too! He did a fabulous job of keeping the music loud enough to enjoy without drowning out conversations. Since no one seemed interested in dancing (which we thought might happen), it created the perfect atmosphere.

The flowers were beautiful, the site was beautiful, the centerpieces were gorgeous, I can't begin to say enough good stuff about how the wedding went! You did awesome! Ooh, and I loved the stockings and welcome items you put together; that turned out so neat! (One of my aunts showed me hers.)

By the way, everyone was really impressed with you and your staff. My parents told me you even arranged for someone from the hotel to come out and help people get back (since all the wedding stuff apparently crowded the van). And then you went and found the driver when he got lost! You really went above and beyond, so thank you very much for taking care of my family!

I had a phone call from one of your staff earlier this week asking me if I would be willing to be a reference. I will try to call her back this coming week, but just so you know, my answer will be yes. Of course! =)

I am back in school now and this semester promises to be every bit as challenging as the last (only now, I don't have to make time for wedding plans). I will be joining Josh in Ohio around mid-May. I'll make sure to give you my new contact information before I go.

Thanks again for everything.
